

Winter Park Alpine ArtAffair cordially invites you to apply to our 38th annual exhibition and sale of fine arts and fine crafts.

The Alpine ArtAffair is a friendly outdoor not-for-profit show, staffed by volunteers who strive to provide an enjoyable experience for artists and visitors alike.

Booth rental & jury fee proceeds fund local arts programs and scholarships.

Eligibility

Winter Park Alpine ArtAffair is open to artists who will be present to exhibit work of their own concept, design and execution. The show is juried to ensure overall quality and balance, with preference given to work reflecting the greatest degree of originality, creativity, and craftsmanship. No manufactured, commercial, imported or kit work will be considered or permitted. Only merchandise of artists juried and accepted by the Alpine ArtAffair Jury will be allowed. Approximately 90 artists will be accepted. Each artist participant must attend his/her booth and is responsible for insurance and sale of his/her artwork.

Exhibit Space

Assigned booth space is 10'x 10'. Artists will provide their own equipment, display, and tent. All parts of the display must fit within the assigned area. If electrical is required contact us for availability & cost. The outdoor grounds are nestled in pine trees along US Highway 40 in Winter Park, elevation 9,000 ft. Conditions vary from flat to slightly rough. Because the show is held outside, suitable protection from sun, wind, and rain is suggested. There is no rain date. Booth space may be shared if both artists have paid jury fees and have been accepted. Double booth space ($250) may be purchased if available.
